Today!

One of the criminals who were hanged there was hurling abuse at Him, saying, "Are You not the Christ? Save Yourself and us!" <sup>40</sup> But the other answered, and rebuking him said, "Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?" <sup>41</sup> And we indeed are suffering justly, for we are receiving what we deserve for our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong." <sup>42</sup> And he was saying, "Jesus, remember me when You come in Your kingdom!" <sup>43</sup> And He said to him, "Truly I say to you, today you shall be with Me in Paradise." (Luke 23:39-43)

Those criminals died that day but for one of them it truly was "Good Friday" for he passed from death unto life! When Jesus came forth from the tomb on Sunday morning (Easter), His resurrection validated the hope the criminal had placed in Him. When sinners place their hope in Jesus they are assured that when they pass from this life, on that very day (TODAY) they will be with the Lord in heaven. They won't wait a day, a week, a month or a year or 100 years. So, 2 Cor. 6:2b Behold, now is "the acceptable time," behold, now is "the day of salvation"

At our GNC on FLW this week we were talking about Easter and looking at 1 Corinthians 15:3-6 a young girl asked a very serious question, "so why do we have eggs and bunnies on Easter?" This question goes straight to an important point, the traditions we embrace can make the word we're trying to teach of no effect!
