Code of Conduct CYIA of Missouri

The following rules are designed to help us live well in a close community setting while at Training School and back in your local chapter. At all times conduct should put others first and also bring honor and glory to the Lord Jesus Christ. Failure to adhere to the Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action including being sent home from Jr. CYIA Training if needed. Following these rules will help our time at Training to go as smoothly as possible for everyone!

Generally speaking, the following attitudes should be representative of your words and actions...

- Respect for authority and those you will be working with
- Punctuality related to all clubs

- Cleanliness in your personal appearance
- Honesty in your conversations and interactions with others
- Diligence in your studies and well-prepared for your part of teaching in each club

The following specific rules should also be followed...

1. Dress Code: The dress code must be followed at all times.
2. Complete all required assignments in class or at home
3. Relationships: Friendships with Christians of the opposite sex are beneficial in social, spiritual and leadership development. Therefore, you may talk, walk, sit, and eat with members of the opposite sex, but at no time will any "pairing-off" with them be acceptable.
4. Name tags: Wear YOUR name tag at all times (other than recreation)
